Friday 10th November 2023 - Issue 8

A Message from Mr. Lane...

As the first week of the new half-term comes to an end, I would like to extend appreciation to everyone who has supported with Remembrance events and Diwali Day this week. Looking ahead to next week, a reminder that children are invited to wear odd socks on Monday to start our Anti-Bullying week and then a 'Pudsey accessory' for Children in Need on Friday (normal school uniform but with a Pudsey hairband, wristband, badge, etc.). We also launch our breakfast offer on Wednesday but would still welcome any parent volunteers who are willing to come into school 10 minutes early each day to help with preparations. Please contact the school office or your child's class teacher if you are able to commit to helping – thank you. Take care and have a great weekend everyone.
