The Switch Squad is a new programme specifically designed and delivered by the team from Switch Midlands.

#NOCAP is a safe space for girls aged 13-16 to meet together and develop trusting and positive friendships. It will provide a weekly opportunity for the group to socialise with one another, develop life skills, understand self-worth, body positivity, safe relationships and encourage improved confidence & selfesteem.

Delivered by experienced female practitioners, each weekly session will be held at the Switch Centre and involve a range of activities that are fun, inclusive and supportive for everyone.

Switch Midlands

No Caps is a 'girls only group' that provides a safe space for 11-16 year olds to come together and develop trusting and positive relationships with one another.

The ethos of the group is proactive promotion of well-being and empowerment, with the approach being based on meeting the needs of each young person.

Through using shared and sociable activities – it gives an opportunity to help support the group with aspects of positive empowerment, for example topics such as personal safety, understanding consent, understanding self-worth, body positivity, the difference between positive/ negative relationships and developing life skills.

The project is led by experienced female practitioners who are trained professionals that work extensively with children and young people.

Places are limited, so please book a space in advance. For more details email hello@switchmidlands.com

Switch also offer relationship and well- being programmes for primary and secondary schools to help develop pupils into independent and caring individuals who are able to navigate life successfully, enabling them to make healthy life choices and build strong, respectful relationships with peers and adults.
