

FREE!

HAPPY NEWS

UK

Pumpkin season is going to be BIG this year!

If you are planning on going pumpkin picking or doing a bit of pumpkin carving this month, then chances are your pumpkin will be much bigger than usual!

Farmers say that we are set for a supersize pumpkin season due to the increased amount of rain we had over the summer. This extra rainfall provided the perfect conditions for growing pumpkins! Huge pumpkins for Halloween?

Sounds fang-tastic!

ENGLAND

Injured sheep gets a new lease of life!

Rosy the sheep was found injured and taken to an animal shelter. She had broken her leg and lost an eye in a farming accident. The shelter fit her with a new wheelchair and she is loving being back on her hooves!

SPAIN

The whirling stilt dancers

Crowds gathered in Anguiano, Spain, last week to watch people on stilts perform a historic dance. The dancers stood tall on 50cm high stilts as they twirled and whirled through narrow cobbled streets and down steep steps, wearing special skirts that help them balance. The wearing of stilts dates back to a time when people in the town wore them to escape the damp, tall grasslands.

Your weekly round up of the funny, wonderful and strange news from across the globe!

ENGLAND

Pride of Britain Awards

The Pride of Britain Awards celebrate amazing achievements from people of all ages who help to make the world a better place. This year's winners were announced at a ceremony in London on 8th October. They included Jack Rigby, 11, who has raised over £50,000 for military charities and Ravi Adelekan (pictured), 8, who has raised over £82,000 for brain tumour research. The awards show that you are never too young to make a difference!

ENGLAND

Lost school jumper returned after 20 years

When Tommy Crank was 7, he tied his school jumper to a football to see how far he could throw it - unfortunately it landed on the school roof! Now, 20 years later, the jumper has been returned to him. In a post on social media, Huxley CofE Primary School in Cheshire, wrote: "Would Tommy Crank - aged 27 like to collect his jumper from the school?" The school recently had the roof fixed, where the jumper was finally discovered - with his name tag still in the collar!

